For use only by:

- holders of certificated shares; and
- holders of dematerialised shares held through a Central Securities Depository Participant (CSDP) or broker and who have selected “own-name” registration, at the annual general meeting to be held at 14h15 on Thursday, 4 September 2025 and at any adjournment thereof.

The annual general meeting will only be accessible through electronic participation, as permitted by the relevant provisions of the Companies Act and memorandum of incorporation (MOI).

TFG shareholders are required to submit completed proxy forms as provided for in the notice of annual general meeting in order for their votes to be counted. TFG shareholders are encouraged to submit their votes electronically by proxy in advance of the annual general meeting to reduce unnecessary complexity and complications.

If you are a TFG shareholder, as referred to above, and are entitled to vote at the annual general meeting, you can appoint a proxy or proxies to vote and speak in your stead at the annual general meeting. A proxy need not be a TFG shareholder. If you are a TFG shareholder and have dematerialised your TFG shares through a CSDP (and have not selected “own-name” registration in the subregister maintained by a CSDP), do not complete this proxy form but provide your CSDP with your voting instructions in terms of your custody agreement entered into with them. Generally, a TFG shareholder will not be an own-name dematerialised shareholder unless the TFG shareholder has specifically requested the CSDP to record the TFG shareholder as the holder of shares in the TFG shareholder’s own name in TFG’s subregister.

Notes

A TFG shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more proxies (none of whom need be a shareholder of TFG) to speak and vote or abstain from voting in the place of that shareholder at the annual general meeting.

1. A TFG shareholder may therefore insert the name of a proxy or the names of two alternative proxies of the TFG shareholder's choice in the space provided, with or without deleting the words "the Chairman of the meeting". The person whose name appears first on the proxy form and who is present at the annual general meeting will be entitled to act as proxy to the exclusion of those whose names follow.
2. A TFG shareholder's instructions to the proxy must be indicated by the insertion of an "X" in the appropriate box or if a TFG shareholder wishes the proxy to cast votes in respect of a lesser number of TFG shares than the TFG shareholder owns, the requisite number of TFG shares should be inserted in the appropriate box. Failure to comply with the above will be deemed to authorise and instruct the Chairman of the meeting, if he is the authorised proxy, to vote in favour of the resolutions concerned at the annual general meeting, or any other proxy to vote or abstain from voting at the annual general meeting as he deems fit, in respect of the TFG shareholder's total holding.
3. The completion and lodging of this proxy form will not preclude a TFG shareholder from participating in the annual general meeting and speaking and voting in person thereat to the exclusion of any proxy appointed in terms hereof, should such TFG shareholder wish to do so.
4. In case of joint holders, the vote of the most senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, for which purpose seniority will be determined by the order in which the names appear on TFG's register of shareholders in respect of the joint holding.
5. The Chairman of the annual general meeting may reject or accept any proxy form which is completed and/or received otherwise than in accordance with these notes.
6. Documentary evidence establishing the authority of a person signing this proxy form in a representative capacity must be attached to this proxy form unless previously recorded by the transfer secretaries or waived by the Chairman of the annual general meeting.
7. Any alteration or correction to this proxy form must be initialled by the signatory/ies but will only be validly made if such alteration or correction is accepted by the Chairman of the annual general meeting.
8. Proxy forms must preferably be emailed to TFG, c/o Computershare Investor Services Proprietary Limited, at proxy@computershare.co.za, to be received preferably by no later than 14h15 on Tuesday, 2 September 2025.
9. If the annual general meeting is adjourned or postponed, proxy forms submitted for the annual general meeting will remain valid in respect of any adjournment or postponement of the annual general meeting unless the contrary is stated on such proxy form.
10. The appointment of a proxy or proxies:
 - a. is suspended at any time and to the extent that a TFG shareholder chooses to act directly and in person in the exercise of any rights as a TFG shareholder;
 - b. is revocable, in which case a TFG shareholder may revoke the proxy appointment by:
 - i. cancelling it in writing or making a later inconsistent appointment of a proxy; and
 - ii. delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy and the transfer secretaries, Computershare Investor Services Proprietary Limited, via email to proxy@computershare.co.za;
 - c. if the instrument appointing a proxy or proxies has been delivered to the transfer secretaries, as long as that appointment remains in effect, any notice that is required by the Companies Act, as amended or the MOI to be delivered by TFG to the TFG shareholder must be delivered by TFG to:
 - i. the TFG shareholder; or
 - ii. the proxy or proxies, if the TFG shareholder has directed TFG to do so in writing and paid any reasonable fee charged by TFG for doing so.

Summary of the rights of a TFG shareholder to be represented by proxy

For purposes of this summary, the term “shareholder” shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in section 57(1) of the Companies Act.

Shareholders’ rights regarding proxies in terms of section 58 of the Companies Act include, inter alia, to at any time appoint any individual, including an individual who is not a shareholder of that company, as a proxy to participate in, and speak and vote at, a shareholders’ meeting on behalf of the shareholder.

A proxy appointment:

- must be in writing, dated and signed by the shareholder; and
- remains valid for:
 - a. one year after the date on which it was signed; or
 - b. any longer or shorter period expressly set out in the appointment, unless it is revoked in a manner contemplated in section 58(4)(c); or expires earlier as contemplated in section 58(8)(d) of the Companies Act.

Except to the extent that the MOI of TFG provides otherwise:

- a shareholder of that company may appoint two (2) or more persons concurrently as proxies, and may appoint more than one (1) proxy to exercise voting rights attached to the different securities held by the shareholder;
- a proxy may delegate the proxy’s authority to act on behalf of the shareholder to another person, subject to any restriction set out in the instrument appointing the proxy; and
- a copy of the instrument appointing a proxy must be delivered to TFG, or to any other person on behalf of TFG, before the proxy exercises any rights of the shareholder at a shareholders’ meeting.

Irrespective of the form of instrument used to appoint a proxy:

- the appointment is suspended at any time and to the extent that the shareholder chooses to act directly and in person in the exercise of any rights as a shareholder;
- the appointment is revocable unless the proxy appointment expressly states otherwise;
- if the appointment is revocable, a shareholder may revoke the proxy appointment by cancelling it in writing, or making a later inconsistent appointment of a proxy; and delivering a copy of the revocation instrument to the proxy and to TFG.

The revocation of a proxy appointment constitutes a complete and final cancellation of the proxy’s authority to act on behalf of the shareholder as of the later of the date:

- stated in the revocation instrument, if any; or
- upon which the revocation instrument is delivered to the proxy and the relevant company as required in section 58(4)(c)(ii) of the Companies Act.

Should the instrument appointing a proxy or proxies have been delivered to the relevant company, as long as that appointment remains in effect, any notice that is required by the Companies Act or the relevant company’s MOI to be delivered by such company to the shareholder must be delivered by such company to:

- the shareholder; or
- the proxy or proxies if the shareholder has in writing directed the relevant company to do so and has paid any reasonable fee charged by TFG for doing so.

A proxy is entitled to exercise, or abstain from exercising, any voting right of the relevant shareholder without direction, except to the extent that the MOI of the relevant company or the instrument appointing the proxy provides otherwise.

If a company issues an invitation to shareholders to appoint one or more persons named by such company as a proxy, or supplies a form of instrument for appointing a proxy:

- such invitation must be sent to every shareholder who is entitled to receive notice of the meeting at which the proxy is intended to be exercised;
- the invitation or proxy form must bear a reasonably prominent summary of the rights established by section 58 of the Companies Act, contain adequate space to enable a shareholder to write in the name, and if so desired an alternative name, of a proxy chosen by the shareholder and provide adequate space for the shareholder to indicate whether the appointed proxy is to vote in favour of or against any resolution or resolutions to be put at the meeting, or abstain from voting;
- TFG must not require that the proxy appointment be made irrevocable; and
- the proxy appointment remains valid only until the end of the relevant meeting at which it was intended to be used, unless revoked as contemplated in section 58(5) of the Companies Act.
